Section 1. Authority

These regulations are promulgated by the Albany County Fair Board (Board) pursuant to the Wyoming Administrative Procedures Act, W.S. §16-3-101 and in accordance with Wyo. Stat. §18-9-101(a) (iii) and §18-9-201 authorizing the Board to adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the operation of the annual County fair.

Section 2. Purpose

The purpose of these rules is to provide regulations as to the operation of the annual Albany County fair, exhibitions, and contests.

Section 3. Severability

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or portion of this regulation is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, that portion shall be considered a separate, distinct and independent provision, and the holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this regulation.

Section 4. General Provisions

1. Loss or Damage

The Albany County Fair will not be responsible for the loss of any article, bird, or animal at the fair, either during the fair, enroute to or from the fair; nor will the Albany County Fair be held responsible for any damage done to any exhibit while at the fair; nor will it be responsible for the safe return of an exhibit to its' owner. Exhibitors are responsible for their own insurance.

2. Right to Construe

The Fair Board reserves to itself the sole and absolute right to construe its' own rules and regulations and to determine arbitrarily all matters and differences in regard thereto.

3. Advertising Material

The distribution of advertising material or matter of any kind, nature or description, including specifically, but not exclusively, political campaign cards, dodgers, fliers, "newspapers", hand bills, buttons, pins, caps, banners, display cards, ribbons, or any and all other forms of media or political advertising of any political party or group by concessionaires, exhibitors, patrons attending an exhibition on the fairgrounds, political parties or any other person or persons whomsoever, shall be, and the same here is, PROHIBITED on fair grounds unless such distribution shall be within and from the assigned and designated space as shall have been duly authorized by the Fair Board upon application thereto.

Conduct

i. No person acting alone or in concert with others, shall go into or upon facilities under the control of the Fair Board and obstruct or disrupt by force, violence, or other conduct, which is in fact obstructive or disruptive, activities conducted therein or thereon or uses made thereof under the authority of the Fair Board. Obstructive or disruptive conduct includes restricting lawful:

1. Freedom of movement on or within a facility
2. Designated use as a facility
3. Ingress or egress on or within a facility (See Wyoming Statute § 6-3-301 through § 6-6-307 et seq.)

ii. No person within or upon the facilities of the Fair Board shall refuse to desist from a course of conduct or to remove himself from the facilities upon request by an authorized representative of the Fair Board, after having been notified that the conduct or presence of the person is contrary to or in violation of established policies, rules or regulations of the Fair Board which are reasonably related to the furtherance of the law and purpose of the Fair Board and incident to the maintenance or orderly and efficient use of the facilities for the purposes for which acquired or designed. (Wyoming Statute § 6-6-305 et seq).

iii. Any person violating paragraph (i) or (ii) above is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $ 750.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days, or both. (Wyoming Statute § 6-6-305).

iv. Any person violating the regularly adopted Rules and Regulations of the Fair Board or whose presence is otherwise prohibited by law may be subject to ejection from the fair grounds and may forfeit any fees paid to the Albany County Fair Board, upon refusal to leave upon request. (Wyoming Statute § 6-6-303 et seq.).

4. Exceptions

The Fair Board reserves the right to make exceptions to any provisions contained herein by a majority vote.

They must be filed on the day the infraction/complaint takes place. If allowed by the Fair Board the fee is returned. Judges decisions are final and may not be protested.

3. Eligibility

A. 4-H

- i. 4-H members your "show age" is your age as of January 1 of the current year. You may turn 19 during the year, you may not show in 4-H if you were 19 on January 1 of the current year.
- ii. 4-H Eligibility is determined by Wyoming State 4-H Rules.

B. FFA

i. Albany County FFA members are eligible to exhibit and sell at the Albany County Fair up to the second county fair following their high school graduation regardless of age. FFA members will be able to show as an FFA member for a maximum of eight years. FFA members must be a bona-fide member and in good standing with their FFA chapter. Any issues regarding FFA member eligibility will be decided upon by the member's FFA advisor. FFA eligibility is determined by Wyoming State FFA Rules. You must meet the requirements for active membership as listed in the current FFA rule book to participate in any contest at this fair; this is defined as enrolled in a secondary agricultural education class. Exhibits should be completed since the last fair and may not have been exhibited at any previous county fair.

C. Other Organizations

i. Members from other youth organizations may request approval for entry from the Fair Board. Approval will be granted by a majority vote from the Fair Board.

4. Code of Conduct

A. Exhibitors or their parents, guardians, or guests, causing public disturbances, those that are uncooperative, and/or unsportsmanlike, those not following good animal welfare practices as determined by management, or those found to be in violation of the rules, any who practice unethical behavior shall be penalized. The forfeiture of premiums and prizes awarded, payment of fines to the county for property damaged, privileges and/or disqualification at this or subsequent county fairs as may be deemed appropriate by the fair management and the board of directors.

B. If the exhibitor and/or the exhibitor's adult supervisor, parent or other family member's actions are deemed to be illegal or inhumane to livestock, the proper authorities will be notified for further investigation by those agencies for possible prosecution and/or civil penalties.

C. Exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Albany County, Albany County Fair and all officers, agents, and employees thereof from all claims, demands, damages, costs, expenses, or liability costs, suits, or actions of every name, kind, and description brought forth from or resulting from the performance of the exhibits or its' entries. All exhibitors and exhibits are under the control of fair management.

D. Others work entered and exhibited by an exhibitor as their own is fraud and will result in the disqualification of the entry and loss of premiums and prizes it may have won.

E. Conduct by the exhibitor, their parents, guardians, or guests, determined to be unacceptable will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis by the management. Penalties may include removal of exhibits, loss of premium money and prizes, and loss of Junior Livestock Sale privileges.

5. Illegal Substances.

A. Possession or use by a minor of alcoholic beverages or drugs on the fairgrounds will result in immediate expulsion of the member and his/her exhibits. An appearance before the Fair Board is mandatory before an exhibitor may show at subsequent fairs.

6. Violation of Rules

A. Any willful disregard for the rules established by the Albany County Fair Board may result in loss of premiums, privileges, expulsion from fair, forfeiture of sale proceeds and may affect participation at future fairs.

B. Removal of Exhibits (including animals) before they are released will result in the loss of premium money and prizes won for that exhibit.

7. Artificial Weights

A. Any attempt to defraud by artificially increasing or decreasing a market animals' weight by any means will result in all of the exhibitor's animals of that species being eliminated from competition at the current year's fair.

8. Substitution of Animals

A. Any attempt to substitute an animal for the consigned sale animal (or the animal of another consignor) either before or after the sale will result in cancellation of the sale and all monies returned. The buyer of record at the sale must receive the animal or the carcass of the animal that they purchased at the Junior Livestock Sale after the sale or the sale will be cancelled, and the consignor will be barred from participation at the following years' fair.

9. Failure to Care for Animals

A. Failure to return the same animal for slaughter that was sold through the Junior Livestock Sale or the attempted substitution of another animal will result in an automatic no sale. In that case, the buyer's money will be refunded, and ownership reverts to the seller.

10. Inhumane Treatment

A. The first offense may result in expulsion from the fairgrounds for all the exhibitor's animals, loss of premiums, prizes, and disqualification from the sale. This covers and includes but is not limited to drug use, surgical alterations, failure to offer clean adequate water at regular intervals, failure to feed animals daily, beating of an animal, use of any foreign substance in or on the body, veterinary procedures to an animal, etc.

B. An appearance before the Fair Board is necessary before an exhibitor may participate in subsequent fairs.

11. Compliance with State and Federal Laws and Regulations.

A. Due to the nature of the livestock show, there are a number of regulations imposed on exhibitors by the State of Wyoming or the Federal government. The Board expects compliance and cooperation by exhibitors in enforcement of those laws and regulations.

12. Livestock Rules

A. Fitting, Feeding and Project Preparation.

i. All participants in the Albany County Fair must be involved and interact in the daily care and preparation of their fair projects. We understand that 4-H and FFA are family-oriented organizations and help may be needed. Please use common sense when caring for and/or preparing your projects at Fair. If you have questions, please consult your superintendent in that area.

ii. 4-H and FFA members are expected to take care of, groom and fit their own animal(s) at Fair. A member may be assisted by a parent(s)/guardian, extension agents or advisors, 4-H leaders, or Superintendents and /or current Wyoming 4-H or FFA. Violations of this rule must be reported to the show superintendent BEFORE THE ANIMAL ENTERS THE SHOW RING. First violation will result in a verbal warning. Second violation will result in disqualification of the animal from the Albany County Fair.

B. Livestock Release

i. Refer to Fair Schedule for release date. There will be no load out on Saturday due to sale and transporting sale animals. Breeding animals may be released after their respective show, they are not required to stay on grounds.

C. Tagging Market animals

i. Animals must have been tagged at the weigh in and have a Wyoming State Fair ear tag in their ear to enter and exhibit at this year's fair.

D. Weigh In.

i. All animals must have been weighed at the spring weigh days and shall be shown in the organization the animal was registered for at the spring weigh in. You may not change the organization once the list has been sent to State Fair.

ii. All weight taken on the Albany County Fair scale will be the official weight for this show and sale. There will be no reweighs. Fair management reserves the right to reweigh any market animal any time during the week with owner present.

E. Proof of Ownership

i. Exhibitors of cattle & sheep must present a current brand inspection, hogs, goats, rabbits, and poultry must present a current bill-of-sale except in some cases of home raised animals. Horses must have Safety Certification form on file in extension office by the June 1st deadline.

F. Animal Health Certificates

i. Exhibitors of the above listed animals must present a current (within the last 10 days) health certificate at the check in station by North Gate, prior to unloading. The Certificate must have been written at the farm or place of origin of the animal as required by state statutes. This applies even to those shows where the animal is hauled in for one day and then taken home. If a hog is purchased out-of-state then a written confirmation of release from quarantine (if required) from the office of the Wyoming State Veterinarian is required. It is your responsibility to know and comply with Wyoming and Federal health regulations.

G. Lost Ear Tags

i. Must be reported to the fair office as soon as they are discovered missing. Tags will be replaced at a scheduled time shortly after they are lost. No tag will be replaced at the fair unless prior notification has been made.

H. Number of Animals Allowed

i. You may weigh up to eight (8) animals in Market classes, per species, at the spring weigh. You may enter six (6) at fair. Following the scheduled weigh in at fair, weight classes will be established and any exhibitor who has more than two (2) animals in any one weight subdivision (class) will be asked to take the excess animals home immediately. You may not show more than two animals in any weight class.

ii. Classes with less than three entries may be combined or cancelled; the decision will be made by the show superintendent.

I. Market Animals

i. Lambs, goats, and hogs must be females or castrated males. Market beef must be steers or heifers. Market Heifers must be spayed, or pregnancy checked open on grounds to be eligible to exhibit. Only polled or dehorned cattle are eligible. Market goats must be disbudded, dehorned, or naturally polled. No horned market goats allowed.

J. Pen/Stall Reservations.

i. Space is at a premium at our fair. We need accurate counts on the numbers of animals you are bringing. You must note the total head on your entry form. Make note of cow-calf pairs and rams on your entry. Species Superintendents may adjust stall assignments as they see fit in their species barn. Exhibitors will be required to clean out their pens at the conclusion of the week. The pen must be cleaned by Sunday at 5 PM. Failure to do so will result in fair premium will be forfeited.

ii. Livestock must be in their pens/stalls by the posted deadline of 2 PM Monday. Please use the North gate by the Rodeo Arena. In the interest of the safety of our kids and their animals, you will have no access through the paved parking area. Rabbits arrive _____.

K. Veterinary Assistance.

i. No veterinary procedures are allowed on the fairgrounds unless performed by a licensed veterinarian. Procedure for veterinary attention for animals housed during the week of fair:

ii. Notify the species superintendent.

iii. After inspection of the animal by a licensed veterinarian, a report on any treatment must be on file in the fair office.

iv. An exhibitor, with a written vet report on file in the fair office may follow the written direction of that veterinarian for the same animal on which the report and inspections were made.

v. Remember, the Federal government prohibits using certain drugs on animals headed for slaughter.

- L. Bedding.
  - i. Hogs and Poultry with shavings, beef on sand or shavings. Goats and sheep on shavings or carpet only.
- M. Dangerous Animals.
  - i. Any animal that, in the opinion of show management, poses a danger to any other person or animal may be dismissed from the fair. It is your responsibility to ensure that your animal is safely halter broke and controllable.
- N. Humane Treatment.
  - i. Animals must be cared for daily. No abuse or neglect of any animal will be tolerated.
  - ii. The first offense will result in expulsion from the fair grounds for all of the exhibitor's animals.
  - iii. This covers and includes but is not limited to drug use, surgical alterations, failure to offer clean adequate water at regular intervals, failure to feed animals daily, beating of an animal, use of any foreign substance in or on the body, cosmetic veterinary procedures to an animal, etc.
  - iv. Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning their own pens daily. This includes your tie out stall.
- O. Late Arrival of Animals.
  - i. If animals are late, into the barn, for weigh in or for show, the penalty is:
    - 1. For breeding animals, it is a first place premium; and,
    - 2. For market animals the penalty is $25, per infraction.
- P. Ownership Deadline
  - i. Ownership Deadlines are set by the State 4-H & FFA Organizations. The Albany County Fair recognizes the authority of those two organizations to set these deadlines and will enforce their policies. Questions regarding eligibility or ownership should be referred to the county agents or FFA advisors.

- B. The first-year beginner novice class is for members who are in their first year of the dog project, not the first year with a new dog. It is designed as a training class for members who do not feel competent to start in the On Leash class. Members may compete in the first-year beginner novice class only once.
- C. A 4-H exhibitor with a dog shown previously in obedience classes by another 4-H member, or a dog that has a title from another organization or has three qualifying scores from the designated annual county 4-H show, must show the dog by these guidelines:
  - i. Junior and Intermediate age exhibitors may move back or down one level.
  - ii. Senior age exhibitors must show the dog at the highest level the dog has achieved.

- D. A dog receiving a qualifying score of at least 170 points at the designated annual county 4-H show may advance the following year to the next higher class but must advance after receiving 3 qualifying scores from the designated annual county 4-H show. Once the higher level of obedience is selected for the dog, the member may not drop back/down to the lower level with the same dog.
  - E. High in trial will be calculated on the basis of the raw qualifying score plus five additional points with each increase in level of difficulty.
  - F. Showmanship classes will compete in age division groups. There will be no individual showmanship.
2. Score Sheets.
- A. The Wyoming 4-H dog score sheets were designed for the benefit of 4-H members. They are intended as guides for judges. Judges use their discretion in deciding the seriousness of errors.
3. Competition Guidelines
- A. All dogs must enter/leave the show the ring and compete with a leash.
  - B. Bait and/or toys are not allowed in obedience competition.
  - C. Dogs soiling or urinating in the ring during judging will be disqualified and receive no score.
  - D. Males and females will be shown in the same class. Females in heat will be shown last in the class and must be kept away from the obedience ring until call time.
  - E. An identification paper must have been filed with the extension office by May 1st, the state deadline for any dog to participate in any Albany County Fair dog event.
  - F. Governing rules shall be from the Wyoming State 4-H Dog Show Guidelines, not AKC guidelines. Classes will run in book order unless exhibitors are notified prior to the show.
  - G. 4-H members in the dog project may use co-owned or leased dogs, the member must have responsibility for the sole care, training and showing of that dog for the current 4-H year and in the case of a co-owned dog, there must be a training contract. The dog must live in the same home as the member.
  - H. Dogs must have current immunizations including rabies, distemper, and parvo. Rabies shots must be renewed under state guidelines. Dogs must be accompanied by an official health certificate by a veterinarian to participate at Albany County Fair.

- I. Dogs may only be taken into the Livestock Show Arena, or in the South End of Swine barn, where an area is designated for your kennels and show staging.
  - J. Be prepared to clean up after your animal while on the fair grounds. Dogs soiling in the ring will be disqualified.
  - K. Vicious dogs will be dismissed from the ring and must be immediately removed from the fair grounds.
  - L. An exhibitor must show with a six-foot (6') leash.
4. Class schedule is as follows.

Wyoming 4-H Dog Agility

1. General Provisions

- A. Agility classes are open only to members enrolled in the dog project in Albany County.
- B. Before competing in agility, the team of dog and handler must have received instruction in agility procedures. It is mandatory that the team participate in one year of obedience concurrent or prior to instruction in agility. Entry in agility is required to accompany participation in one additional area of the dog project.

2. Competition guidelines.

- A. No dogs under the age of one year, by May 1st, may participate.
- B. Obstacle contact familiarization for handler and dog on levels 1, 2, or 3 will be held before competing. A separate course familiarization for handler only on all levels will be held, not to exceed ten minutes for each.
- C. Bait may not be used in competition.
- D. Dogs in heat will be run at the end of the class. We discourage competing with very pregnant dogs.
- E. You must use a flat, buckle collar with nothing hanging from it. Leashes, if allowed, can be up to six feet (6') in length or a one-half foot (6") tab or fob.
- F. Dogs must be at least one year of age by May 1st.
- G. State entrants must achieve qualifying scores at their county level before competing in the State 4-H Dog Show. The level at which a member qualifies at the county level is the level in which they will compete at the State 4-H Dog Show.
- H. A dog receiving a qualifying score of at least 75 points at the county 4-H show may advance the following year to the next higher class but must advance after receiving 3 qualifying scores from the designated county 4-H show. Once the higher level in agility is selected for the dog, the member may not drop back to the lower level with the same dog.
- I. Youth, with a dog shown in previous years by another 4-H member, or a dog that has a standard agility title from another organization or has received three qualifying scores from the designated annual county 4-H show must show the dog under these guidelines.
- J. Junior and Intermediate aged 4-H youth may move back/down one level.

- K. Senior aged 4-H youth must show the dog at the highest level the dog has.
  - L. All dogs must enter and leave the ring on leash.
  - M. Level 1 dogs will run on a leash. Level 2 dogs must run off leash or with a tab no longer than 6 inches. Collars must be of a flat, buckle variety with nothing hanging from it such as tags.
  - N. A time for all handlers (only) to familiarize themselves with the course they are competing in will be established and announced.
  - O. To qualify for agility competition, the handler must compete in an obedience or showmanship class at fair.
3. Competition scoring
- A. Same day advancement to another level is not allowed. However, Junior 4-H members with a dog shown previously by another 4-H handler of AKC agility show champion may move back or down one level. A Senior 4-H member with the same dog, must show at the last level in which the dog competed.
  - B. Level 1: Six obstacles. Dog walk, single bar jump, wall jump, broad jump, open tunnel, pause table. On or off leash, no penalty for touching the dog or obstacles. Qualifying score is 150; time allowed is 1:30.
  - C. Level 2: Nine obstacles. All six level 1 plus A Frame, tire jump, and closed tunnel. On or off leash, no penalty for touching the dog or obstacles. Qualifying score is 150; time allowed is 2:00.
  - D. Level 3: All of level 1 & 2 obstacles plus double bar and/or see-saw. Off leash, collar optional. Qualifying score is 175; time allowed is 2:00.
  - E. Level 4: 12 obstacles, all of level 3 plus weave poles (6 poles). Off leash, collar optional. Qualifying score is 175; time allowed is 2:00.
  - F. Level 5: 14-15 obstacles, all of level 4 plus weave poles (12 poles). Off leash collar optional. Qualifying score is 185; time allowed is 2:00.
  - G. Level 6: Includes all of level 5 obstacles, may be included multiple times. Off leash collar optional. Course consists of two runs. 1st run standard level 5, second run jumps with weaves. Times and scores will be combined for placing.
  - H. Fastest times will be used to break ties on scores at all levels.

Junior Shows

Section 13. Junior Livestock Shows

1. Dress Code.
  - a. Is in effect for all shows and the sale. Exhibitors must be dressed in clean, full-length, solid-colored pants, dress shirts or blouses, a collar is recommended, but not required, and closed toe shoes. Exceptions may be considered in special circumstances. Exhibitors should comply with species specific requirements.
  - b. If there is a dress code for specific shows, members should follow that dress code. If members choose to dress in theme for the sale, they must do so while also observing the footwear policy stated above.
2. Fitting, Feeding and Project Preparation.
  - a. All participants in the Albany County Fair must be involved and interact in the daily care and preparation of their fair projects. We understand that 4-H and FFA are family-oriented organizations and help may be needed. Please use common sense when caring for and/or preparing your projects at Fair. If you have questions, please consult your superintendent in that area.
  - b. 4-H and FFA members are expected to take care of, groom and fit their own animal(s) at Fair. A member may be assisted by a parent(s)/guardian, extension agents or advisors, 4-H leaders, or Superintendents and /or current Wyoming 4-H or FFA. Violations of this rule must be reported to the show superintendent BEFORE THE ANIMAL ENTERS THE SHOW RING. First violation will result in a verbal warning. Second violation will result in disqualification of the animal from the Albany County Fair.
3. Livestock Release
  - i. Refer to Fair Schedule for release date. There will be no load out on Saturday due to sale and transporting sale animals. Breeding animals may be released after their respective show, they are not required to stay on grounds.
4. Tagging Market animals
  - a. Animals must have been tagged at the weigh in and have a Wyoming State Fair ear tag in their ear to enter and exhibit at this year's fair.
5. Weigh In.
  - a. All animals must have been weighed at the spring weigh days and shall be shown in the organization the animal was registered for at the spring weigh in. You may not change the organization once the list has been sent to State Fair-
  - b. All weight taken on the Albany County Fair scale will be the official weight for this show and sale. There will be no reweighs. Fair management reserves the right to reweigh any market animal any time during the week with owner present.

6. Proof of Ownership

- a. Exhibitors of cattle & sheep must present a current brand inspection, hogs, goats, rabbits, and poultry must present a current bill-of-sale except in some cases of home raised animals. Horses must have Safety Certification form on file in extension office by the June 1st deadline.

7. Animal Health Certificates

- a. Exhibitors of the above listed animals must present a current (within the last 10 days) health certificate at the check in station by North Gate, prior to unloading. The Certificate must have been written at the farm or place of origin of the animal as required by state statutes. This applies even to those shows where the animal is hauled in for one day and then taken home. If a hog is purchased out-of-state then a written confirmation of release from quarantine (if required) from the office of the Wyoming State Veterinarian is required. It is your responsibility to know and comply with Wyoming and Federal health regulations.

8. Lost Ear Tags

- a. Must be reported to the fair office as soon as they are discovered missing. Tags will be replaced at a scheduled time shortly after they are lost. No tag will be replaced at the fair unless prior notification has been made.

9. Number of Animals Allowed

- a. You may weigh up to eight (8) animals in Market classes, per species, at the spring weigh. You may enter six (6) at fair. Following the scheduled weigh in at fair, weight classes will be established and any exhibitor who has more than two (2) animals in any one weight subdivision (class) will be asked to take the excess animals home immediately. You may not show more than two animals in any weight class.
- b. Classes with less than three entries may be combined or cancelled; the decision will be made by the show superintendent.

10. Market Animals

Section 14. Junior Livestock Sale

A. Dress Code.

1. Is in effect for all shows and the sale. Exhibitors must be dressed in clean, full-length, solid-colored pants, dress shirts or blouses, a collar is recommended, but not required, and closed toe shoes.

B. Donations from Sale Consignments.

1. Any member wishing to donate to a scholarship fund, a foundation or any other organization MUST do so when they fill out their consignment forms for the sale. You must have complete address and donation information. The auctioneers will not announce donations at the sale, a list of lot numbers with donations published at sale.

C. For Sale Signs

1. No "for sale" signs are allowed on stalls/pens, or on the fair grounds. A sign-up list of exhibitors with animals to sell will be compiled in the fair office. Feel free to add your animals to it.

D. Eligibility.

1. Only 4-H & FFA Members or members of other approved organization (pursuant to section 6, eligibility provisions) regularly enrolled in Albany County Market Animal programs and participating as an active member of their club/chapter, will be allowed to sell an animal in this sale.
2. 4-H and FFA members must meet the Junior Livestock Exhibit eligibility rules.
3. Members must attend a Quality Assurance Meeting the first year of membership and again as they enter each new age division, to be eligible for the sale.
4. You must show your own animal in its' market class and take your own animal into the sale ring in order to be eligible to sell. Exceptions given to multiple animals in a single market class, medical emergency, and/or illness. Exhibitor or exhibitor's representative (parent/guardian, 4-H agent/leader, FFA advisor) must notify respective show superintendent of any extenuating circumstances. For scenarios not outlined above the fair manager should be notified as soon as possible.

E. Marketability.

1. Animals must have met weight requirements, been judged salable by the official fair judge, and been entered in and shown by the consignor in the market animal classes in the Junior Department of the current year's Albany County Fair.

- F. In order to show, a qualified entry must be willing to sell their animal, should that animal win the Grand Championship.
- G. No improper drugs may have been administered to this animal before this sale pursuant to USDA slaughter restrictions. You must certify this when you consign.
- H. Establishment of Ownership.
  - 1. All cattle and lambs must have a current brand inspection showing a change in ownership on a state approved brand inspection form. All other species must have a current bill of sale except in some cases of home raised animals.
- I. Sale Order.
  - 1. Sale order is established by the Fair Office using the official placing off of the judging sheets and the following criteria:
- J. Each consignor may sell two (2) animals of different species but only one pen of poultry.
- K. The Grand and Reserve Grand Champion Market Beef, Lamb, Goat and Hog must sell at this sale, provided that the exhibitor is eligible. The Grand and Reserve Grand Champions will sell at the beginning of this sale.
- L. Poultry & Rabbits.
  - 1. You are responsible for delivery and/or processing of your animal(s) and transporting the animal(s) to the new owner. The sale committee will not make slaughter or delivery arrangements, nor will they pay any incurred costs by either party.
  - 2. Do not leave your animals in the barn.
- M. Consignments.
  - 1. All necessary forms for consignment will be due complete with all exhibitor and parent signatures by Friday at _____ for all species.
  - 2. Consignment will be during the market animal show for each ~~large~~ species.
  - 3. No late signatures or consignments will be accepted. You must know your ear tag, tattoo or leg band numbers and the weights of your animal when you consign.
  - 4. Consignment cards will not leave the consignment table. Your parents must be with you to sign them, (unless exhibitor is over 18). No exceptions. Be prepared to indicate the way you want your parents announced at the sale on your consignment form.
- N. State Fair Insurance.

1. You must indicate if you are going to the Wyoming State Fair when you consign. If you go, you will be responsible for the animal after county and during state fair. Remember that you no longer own the animal.
  2. Realize there is a risk of loss of the animal during this time and consider your decision carefully. This insurance does not cover the transport of your animal to any other show or location other than your home and the Wyoming State Fair.
  3. Insurance will be purchased to cover the cost of the loss of market beef, sheep, goats and hogs that you sell at this sale if you indicated that you are going to state fair. If you change your mind and decide not to go to state fair, you are responsible for caring for the animal until other members have returned from state fair. You are then to deliver the animal to the location directed by the sale committee as if you had gone to state fair.
  4. Insurance will still be deducted. Insurance is assessed at 1.5 - 2% of the market value of the animal.
  5. You are responsible for delivering your animal to the announced drop off point on Sunday, immediately upon your return from state fair. Do not take your animal home. The insurance the committee purchase is not good unless the animal is dropped off directly upon return from State Fair.
- O. Transfer of Ownership.
1. All sales are final, by consigning your animal to the sale, after it is purchased, the exhibitor no longer owns it and may not contact the buyer to negotiate trading/switching/or buying back the animal. Violation of this rule may cause the sale to be negated and the buyers money to be returned.
- P. Clean your animals' pens before 10:00 AM Saturday morning, then contact the barn superintendent for your yellow sale order card and post it over your pen. Consignors only, must be in the barn ready to be called 20 minutes before their turn.
- Q. Checks must be cashed within 90 days of the issue date. Checks not cashed will be voided. If a previous auction sales invoice was signed by the consignor's parent, immediate family and/or guardian and remains unpaid, auction sales proceeds will be withheld from the exhibitor until such time as full payment for the prior obligation is received. This committee will take any steps necessary to collect outstanding debts owed it. A commission will be charged of no less than .5%.
- R. A table will be set up in the sale barn to enable consignors to find out the names of the buyers of their animals and to write their thank you notes on sale day. You must sign three (3) thank you cards from the list supplied by the sale committee (in addition to the notes to your buyer/s). Thank you notes to your buyers must be turned into the sale committee before you receive your checks. If three people go in together to buy your animal, then you must write six (6) thank you notes for your animal. It is highly recommended that consigners send thank you notes to buyers who do add ons.

Section 15. Junior Horse Show

- A. The show will refer to the Wyoming 4-H Equine Competition Guidelines which can be found online at www.edu/4h/projects/horse, the Wyoming State Fair Book or the AQHA rule book (for classes not covered by the Junior Shows Guideline Book). Albany County Fair will be using 2011 training level test 1, 2, and 3 respectively for Jr. Intermediates and Seniors for the programmed ride.
- B. For questions not covered by these rules, nor addressed in this premium book, the superintendent has the authority to settle disputes.
- C. No lame horses, at the discretion of the show superintendent, will be allowed to compete. Disqualification resulting from this rule is final.
- D. Class Size
  - 1. Classes with less than three entries may be combined or cancelled; the decision will be made by the show superintendent. Classes too large for safety may be split into sections for judging and safety. Classes may be combined to save time.
- E. No animal that is determined by show management to be a danger to another horse or human will be allowed to participate or allowed to be on the grounds during horse events.
- F. No vehicles are allowed in the UW Hansen Arena or within 20 feet of any door.
- G. Conduct.
  - 1. Conduct by the exhibitor, their parents, guardians or a guest, which is determined to be unacceptable, will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis by the management.
  - 2. Any adult who attempts to influence the outcome of the classes will be asked to leave the show grounds immediately.
  - 3. Penalties against the associated exhibitor may include disqualification, loss of premium money and prizes, and removal from the show grounds. With approval of the fair board, show superintendents have the authority to supervise the schedule, combine or cut classes and to enforce the rules.
  - 4. Disagreements are grievances and must follow established procedures.
- H. Horse Safety Certifications.
  - 1. You must have submitted safety certification sheets by the FFA or 4-H deadlines. An animal may be identified in only one organization. You must show the horse you have certified on in FFA as an FFA entry, or in 4-H as a 4-H entry. You may not show the same horse in both 4-H & FFA.

2. Each club member may own, lease and possess as many horses as he or she desires. However, each horse can only be exhibited by a single club member.
3. In extreme circumstances, such as the death of a horse, the fair board may determine a youth exhibitor can safety certify with and/or exhibit a leased horse after the safety certification deadline but prior to fair. Each case must be presented to the Albany County Fair board by the member.

I. Competition Guidelines.
